Govt proposes online gaming self-regulation

These organisations will have to come up with a framework to define the content of self-regulation in a view to safeguard users against harm, ensure that online gaming companies are taking measures to safeguard children, companies are adopting self-specifying risk of gaming addiction and financial loss through repeated warning messages at higher frequency beyond a certain threshold for a gaming session etc. and measures to safeguard against the risk of financial fraud.

"The government has enough power to intervene in case SRGs don't do their jobs. Measures like periodic audits/reports from SRGs will be prescribed over time," it also makes it mandatory that these organisations will only have to categorise the risks.

It is not a question of whether it is a game of skill or a game of chance. It is basically a prohibition of wagering on any game. It is the SRG that will determine that," he said.

The governing body of SRGs will involve an independent eminent person from the field of online gaming, persons or recent criminals, persons who represent online game players, individual from field of psychology, consumer education, government appointed individual having expertise in public policy, among others.

With regards to the additional due diligence by the gaming companies, the draft also makes it mandatory for them to display a registration mark given by SRGs on all online games, informing its users regarding its policy related to self-regulation. In refusal of the deposit, manner of determination and distribution of winnings, fees and other charges payable, and KYC (Know your customer) procedure after user account registration.

Besides, the online gaming intermediaries will have to mandatorily appoint a chief compliance officer, a nodal contact person for coordination with law enforcement agencies and officers, and must have a physical contact address in India published on its website.

Failure to comply with the framework, the online gaming intermediaries will be liable to punitive punishments as per the IT act.

"We believe this is a great first step for comprehensive regulation for online gaming and it hopefully reduces the state-wise regulatory fragmentation that was a big challenge for the industry," Rohan Lander, the CEO of All India Gaming Federation, said.

Zomato sees fourth C-suite exit in less than two months

The share price of Zomato, which saw public listing in December 2022, is down over 60% from a high of ₹162.18 listed at ₹60.25 on Monday.

Besides Zomato, a clutch of new-age technology companies such as listing on the exchange. Shareholders have been disappointed by neither their performance or workaholic zeal. It is in the case of Zomato. Analysts at the end of the year were an optimistic view of the company's growth prospects in its large market and the company's growth prospects in its large market and the company's growth prospects in its large market.

However, there's been a big jump in digital payments—UPI transactions grew from ₹100 crore in the month of demonetisation to ₹1.32 trillion in December 2022.

Justice J. Jayaprakash Reddy, who called the decision to withdraw 500 and 1,000 rupee notes "unfortunate" and "retrospectively being well-considered." The government had been in Parliament and directed that the decision to withdraw 500 and 1,000 rupee notes "unfortunate" and "retrospectively being well-considered."

According to the majority view, however, the decision had a reasonable basis in the public interest, such as reducing the black money, terror funding etc. The court also said the 5-day window provided for the emergency withdrawal was not unreasonably short.

em had argued that the Centre cannot issue instructions to legal entities. Justice Nariman said that the Centre has the power to issue instructions to legal entities.

BIG BOOST FOR STOCKS

FCI's paddy purchase up 11% at 53 MT

The government aims to procure 90 MT of paddy in 2022-23 (Oct-Sept)

PROCUREMENT (in million tonnes)

SANJIV DAS New Delhi, January 2

THREE MONTHS SINCE the commencement of paddy procurement by the Food Corporation of India (FCI) and state government agencies for the current kharif season (2022-23), the total purchase of paddy was up by 11% on year at 53 million tonnes (MT).

Higher grain procurement is expected to boost rice stocks held by FCI, which has been depleted by implementation of the free ration scheme that was implemented during April, 2020- December, 2022.

As on January 1, FCI had 12.4 MT in its godowns. 12.5 MT in rice procurement in the first three months of the year has been more than the buffer requirement of 7.6 MT.

Officials said that surplus stocks, especially by the end of September and the first week of October, prior to paddy harvesting, have not impacted market arrivals. Punjab, Haryana, Chhattisgarh, Uttar Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Telangana and Odisha have contributed the most to the procurement drive.

In Punjab, the biggest contributor to the central pool are the agencies including FCI have purchased 18.2 MT of paddy this year, which is a 2% less than during the same period in previous year.

Agencies in Haryana have procured 5.8 MT of grains under MSP operations, which was marginally higher than a year ago. In Telangana, agencies have purchased 5.5 MT of paddy so far which is a marginal increase from the previous year.

In Chhattisgarh and Odisha, where paddy purchase by agencies is currently being undertaken, 7.85 MT and 1.37 MT of paddy procurement have been recorded in the agencies under MSP operations till Sunday which is 48% and 67% more than previous year.

The government is aiming to procure 90 MT of paddy in the entire marketing season (2022-23). Paddy-to-rice conversion ratio is 67%. After paddy is procured from the farmers by the FCI and state agencies, it is loaded over to mills for conversion into rice.

FCI supplied rice for distribution to ration shops under PDS to more than 500 million beneficiaries under the National Food Security Act and other welfare schemes. The rice procured from grain-surplus states is allowed for keeping in the stock under the PDS.

According to agriculture ministry estimates, rice production could decline by 6 MT in the 2022-23 crop year (July to June) over the 2021-22 crop year.

During the first part of the Budget Session, the finance minister will also be likely to present the Union Budget for 2023 and the first part of the session is expected to continue till February 10, the sources said.
